IIMA PGPX Debuts at #11 on the FT Global MBA rankings

The much-awaited Financial Times (FT) 2011 Top 100 B-school rankings came out last week and IIMA Post Graduate Programme for Executives (PGPX) made a scintillating debut at global number 11. PGPX is also number 1 in India and number 2 in the Asia Pacific region. London Business School, Wharton and Harvard take the top 3 spots while IIMA leads the likes of Kellogg, Chicago GSB and Yale. All the hard work put in by the last 4 batches of PGPX, the faculty and the administrators finally bore fruit propelling the PGPX program into the coveted spot thus cementing the vision of the program as a leader in global MBA scene. This is the highest ranking achieved by any B-School in India in any international rankings ever. As IIMA celebrates the Golden Jubilee this year, this achievement is the perfect gift from the PGPX fraternity to its Alma Mater as it establishes the program in the global top tier and also announces India's arrival in the global B-school education arena.

The PGPX Class of 2010-11 would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your association with the PGPX program and for the trust you have placed in our abilities over the years. As we continue this journey of excellence, we hope our partnership to strengthen and become more rewarding to both of us.
